Ron Jackson

- ✦ In the process of preparing our document for the SACS meeting in March 2008.
- ✦ Planning Document – complete unit section – due by November 15th. Division planning document is due December 5th.
- ✦ Traffic violation fine has decreased from $50.00 to $25.00. Parking in handicapped zone fine remains at $100.00.
- ✦ Advertising for two Administrative Specialists positions has been completed. These two positions are for the Information Center – Lobby of the Student Services Building. Morning, evening and weekend positions. Mr. Jackson will be calling on each Leader regarding orientation for these two individuals.
- ✦ The College is involved in two good efforts at the state level – Perkins and the implementation of Perkins IV; as well as dual enrollment/dual credit.
- ✦ The position of EEDA coordinator has not been filled at present. Interviews will continue. This is a full-time temporary position.
- ✦ Please complete SCTEA nominations for educator of the year.
- ✦ Reminder – please maintain electronic calendars.
- ✦ Turn in holiday work assignments for overtime to Mr. Jackson as soon as possible.
- ✦ Mr. Jackson is requesting the Leaders to submit updates on their Customer Service Plan.
- ✦ Mr. Jackson stated that teamwork is extremely important. Teamwork means supporting each other. A number of FSD activities have been held; which some have been well attended and some have not. Please encourage the individuals under your supervision to attend and support FSD activities in all areas as much as possible. Make sure that there is a representative from your respective area(s) to attend FSD activities. This is extremely important.

Kathy McKinzie

Career Planning and Placement

- ✦ Career Connections Workshops – wonderful opportunity for students, faculty and staff to meet with employers and our own graduates to talk about their career choices and how they got where they are. Ms. McKinzie commended Erin

Watkins and Leslie Blackwell on their hard work to get these workshops together. Workshops are being held on the morning and afternoon of November 7, 2007 and November 13th at 11:30 a.m.

- ✚ CPP is very busy with classroom presentations, mock interviews, resume development.
- ✚ CPP is still working on the new software. A follow-up meeting will be scheduled with IT to decide on the software.

- ✦ Working in Archives – getting ready for destruction and re-organization of permanent files.
- ✦ Enrollment is looking good – headcount as of today is 2,189 for Spring.
- ✦ Arena registration will be January 7th and 8th. Set-up for arena registration will be December 14th.
- ✦ Registration at the Cherokee Campus will be January 3rd in the new building.
- ✦ Staff will be available at Tyger River Campus for Flex Start registration.
- ✦ 2007 Models have been completed and distributed.
- ✦ Ms. Bauss attended a Registrar's Peer Group meeting. Major changes are being discussed regarding the degree structure.
- ✦ Working on TAP credit policy. Ms. Bauss is forming a group to discuss this issue.
- ✦ Working with academic departments with drop deadlines.

Nancy Garmroth

- ✦ Postcards (approximately 1,000) were mailed for Spring Semester to remind students that they are starting Spring and have applied for financial aid, but have not completed their file.
- ✦ Individual phone calls are being made to students who have incomplete files.
- ✦ Keyona Kennedy is busy with exit loan counseling.
- ✦ Graduation list was received from Records and have reviewed and are exiting students who have loans with the College and who have loans with other institutions. From this list, FA are looking at students who have used lottery tuition assistance and also SCNGB recipients and are declining their aid for Spring and have sent notices stating “that based on our information, they appear to be graduating and for lottery they have to wait five years to use it and for SCNGB they have to be working on higher credentials.”
- ✦ Laura Moore and Michelle Schultz will be attending a Spartanburg County Foundation Luncheon at Wofford College today, November 7th.
- ✦ Test batch for electronic loans is working fairly well.
- ✦ Michelle Schultz will be at the Commission on Higher Ed. November 12th.
- ✦ Keyona Kennedy will be at the Loan Corporation on November 15th for training.
- ✦ Laura Moore is working with PR on marketing and advertising to promote Financial Aid Awareness Month (February).
- ✦ Evaluations from the Financial Aid Information Session held last week – very good feedback.

Leila McKinney

- ✦ Perkins report due November 19th.
- ✦ A representative from Dignity-U-Wear was on campus October 11th to meet with Ms. McKinney regarding the needs of AIM Center students. They have a new sponsor that will provide more business attire clothing.
- ✦ Nancy Edwards will be officially retiring the end of December

Bob Day

- ✦ Two Cooperative Program students were awarded scholarships by the Spartanburg Lions Club at the end of October. Two more students were awarded scholarships from the Mauldin Lions Club in November. This totals four $1,000 scholarships ✚ Cooperative Program has had a good semester this Fall. Only one of thirty-five students withdrew. Two/three new students will register for Spring Semester.

The College will close at 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 21st.

Meeting adjourned at 10:50 a.m.
