

FEBRUARY

TLC STUDENT OF THE MONTH

Each month TLC will select a student that has benefitted from our services.
February's student is Casandra Mitchem.

The TLC is pleased to announce that Cassandra Mitchem is our student of the month for February. She was led to Spartanburg Community College because it was less expensive than going to a four year school and because she could get all of her prerequisite courses here. She is working toward an Associate of Science degree.

Cassandra learned about the TLC by touring the campus and hearing teachers talk about it. She visits the TLC everyday if she can. All of this hard work has led Cassandra to be in the Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society.

Teaching Sunday School at her church and working out with her dad at the gym are two activities that Cassandra enjoys. In addition, she enjoys karate, which she started when she was two, and is now a second degree black belt.

Cassandra has a work-study position in the science department. In closing, Cassandra enjoys the TLC because it is a place to do homework and get help without an appointment. She feels that the staff is wonderful and notices that there is a tutor for nearly every subject.

Please join us in encouraging Casandra Mitchem, February's
"Student of the Month."
February 2015